JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Olaleye Abioro, is hereby placed on probation on the Single-Count Information for a term of one year under the following terms and conditions:

- 1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02.*
- 2. During the term of probation, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this Judgment's orders pertaining to such payments.*
- 3. The defendant shall not be employed at any time in the future by the United States Postal Service or any other competitive mail couriers.*

In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3563(d), the Probation Officer is directed to provide the defendant with a written statement that sets forth all the conditions to which the sentence is subject, and that is sufficiently clear and specific to serve as a guide for the defendant's conduct and for such supervision as is required.

All fines are waived as the defendant has established to the satisfaction of the Probation Officer that he does not have the ability to pay a fine either immediately or in future installments.

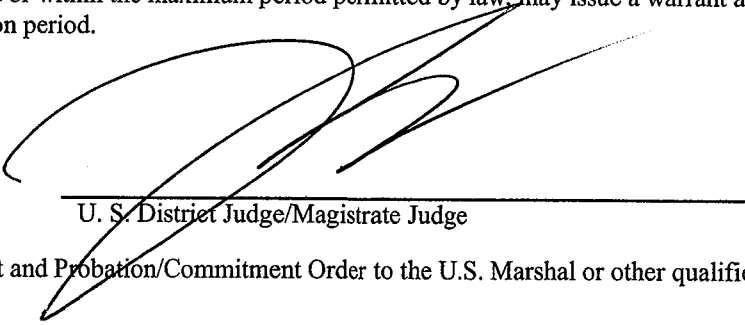

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $10, which is due immediately.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
